Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labors, for their good deeds go with them.

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

Ownership

The grave is not "owned" by those who buy it. Rather, the purchase is for the right to be buried there. The grave remains the private property of Immaculate Conception Church.

Graves can be sold back to the church for the price of the original sale, not the current selling price. Graves may be sold or transferred to family or others, however, the parish office must be involved in documenting the transfer.

Headstones are owned by the family. Thus, any damage that occurs to headstones (vandalism, weather, etc.) is the responsibility of the family. The exception would be damage from our equipment or that of our contractors.

Falling monuments can be very dangerous. Repairing them is the responsibility of the family. Please help ensure the safety of our visitors by keeping monuments in good condition. Please contact the parish office before bringing heavy equipment into the cemetery to re-set a monument.
