4th Sunday of Advent

*The virgin shall conceive, and bear a son,
and they shall name him Emmanuel.*

The word, the wisdom of God, was made flesh

In honor of the celebration of Jesus' birth at Christmas, for today's pastor's column, I'd like to share a sermon from Saint Peter Chrysologus on Jesus and his Incarnation.

Merry Christmas!

You are in my daily prayers.
God bless you,
Fr. VanDenBroeke

The holy Apostle has told us that the human race takes its origin from two men, Adam and Christ; two men equal in body but unequal in merit, wholly alike in their physical structure but totally unlike in the very origin of their being. The first man, Adam, he says, became a living soul, the last Adam a life-giving spirit.

The first Adam was made by the last Adam, from whom he also received his soul, to give him life. The last Adam was formed by his own action; he did not have to wait for life to be given him by someone else, but was the only one who could give life to all. The first Adam was formed from valueless clay, the second Adam came forth from the precious womb of the Virgin. In the case of the first Adam, earth was changed into flesh; in the case of the second Adam, flesh was raised up to be God.

What more need be said? The second Adam stamped his image on the first Adam when he created him. That is why he took on himself the role, and the name, of the first Adam, in order that he might not lose what he had made in his own image. The first Adam, the last Adam; the first had a beginning, the last knows no end. The last Adam is indeed the first; as he himself says: I am the first and the last.

I am the first, that is, I have no beginning. I am the last, that is, I have no end. But what was spiritual, says the Apostle, did not come first; what was living came first, then what is spiritual. The earth comes before its fruit, but the earth is not so valuable as its fruit. The earth exacts pain and toil; its fruit bestows subsistence and life. The prophet rightly boasted of this fruit: Our earth has yielded its fruit. What is this fruit? The fruit referred to in another place: I will place upon your throne one who is the fruit of your body. The first man, says the Apostle, was made from the earth and belongs to the earth; the second man is from heaven, and belongs to heaven.

The man made from the earth is the pattern of those who belong to the earth; the man from heaven is the pattern of those who belong to heaven. How is it that these last, though they do not belong to heaven by birth, will yet belong to heaven, men who do not remain what they were by birth but persevere in being what they have become by rebirth? The reason is, brethren, that the heavenly Spirit, by the mysterious infusion of his light, gives fertility to the womb of the virginal font. The Spirit brings forth as men belonging to heaven those whose earthly ancestry brought them forth as men belonging to the earth, and in a condition of wretchedness; he gives them the likeness of their Creator. Now that we are reborn, refashioned in the image of our Creator, we must fulfill what the Apostle commands: So, as we have worn the likeness of the man of earth, let us also wear the likeness of the man of heaven.

Now that we are reborn, as I have said, in the likeness of our Lord, and have indeed been adopted by God as his children, let us put on the complete image of our Creator so as to be wholly like him, not in the glory that he alone possesses, but in innocence, simplicity, gentleness, patience, humility, mercy, harmony, those qualities in which he chose to become, and to be, one with us.

There is a sign-up sheet in the back of church where you can jot down your family name before Mass begins to sign-up to bring up the gifts at that Mass. (The gifts sign-up sheet is the same as the usher sign-up sheet.) Especially if you have younger children, this is a special thing to do as a family once in a while.

 Mass intentions can be offered for any reason including someone who has died, to celebrate a birthday, or sacramental anniversary. If you would like to schedule a Mass intention, contact the Parish Office. Call 744- 2829 or email office@icchurch.cc

Retirement Fund for Religious

Help aging religious. Elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer and ministry - educating the young, tending the sick, and aiding the needy, and more. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left a profound shortage in retirement savings. Your support of the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish care, medicine, and other necessities. Please give generously to this collection. There is an envelope in your giving packet.

Lord Jesus, present in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and living perpetually among us through Your Priests, grant that the words of Your Priests may be only Your words, that their gestures be only Your gestures, and that their lives be a true reflection of Your life. Grant that they may be men who speak to God on behalf of His people, and speak to His people of God. Grant that they be courageous in service, serving the Church as she asks to be served. Grant that they may be men who witness to eternity in our time, traveling on the paths of history in Your steps, and doing good for all. Grant that they may be faithful to their commitments, zealous in their vocation and mission, clear mirrors of their own identity, and living the joy of the gift they have received. We pray that Your Holy Mother, Mary, present throughout Your life, may be ever present in the life of Your Priests. Amen O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen.

END OF YEAR PLANNED GIVING

When you make a planned gift that supports The Church of the Immaculate Conception, you ensure that the mission of our parish is fulfilled. Your planned gift has a lasting impact on our Church and on our world.

Gift of Stock

A gift of stock to the Church of the Immaculate Conception can provide you with DOUBLE TAX BENEFITS. First, you may be able to claim a charitable donation in the amount of the market value of the stock (original cost plus any increase in value) on the date the gift is made to the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Second, you avoid paying taxes on the appreciated value of the donated stock.

IRA Direct Transfer

If you make a direct transfer from your IRA to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, this won't increase your adjusted gross income as this transfer is not actually distributed to you. This is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution. This option is particularly beneficial if you don't itemize deductions on your tax return.

Matching Donation

Many employers sponsor matching gift programs and will match any charitable contributions made by their employees to a qualified charitable organization. Most employers will match to the school and some employers will match to the Church as well. This is a way to double your gift to benefit the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Parish Edition

December 2025

A Christmas Message from Holy Cross Catholic School

As the season of Advent draws us closer to Christmas, we would like to take a moment to pause, reflect, and extend our heartfelt gratitude to our parish communities. This time of year invites us to slow down, to notice the blessings around us, and to remember the true reason for the season—the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

We are incredibly thankful to everyone who joined us for our Make Way Nativity Concert. What a beautiful evening it was, filled with joyful hearts, meaningful music, and a powerful reminder of the Nativity story. Watching our students share the message of Christ's birth through song and storytelling was both humbling and inspiring. Moments like these remind us why Catholic education matters so deeply—faith is not just taught, but lived and shared.

A very special thank you goes to Mrs. McDonald, whose dedication, patience, and passion brought this concert to life. Her commitment to our students and her ability to guide them in sharing the story of Jesus in such a meaningful way is truly a gift to our school and community. We are so blessed to have teachers who pour their hearts into helping our students grow not only academically, but spiritually as well.

As Christmas approaches, we are mindful that this season can feel both joyful and busy. Between the traditions, the gatherings, and the constant movement of daily life, we are reminded of the importance of creating space for quiet reflection. Advent invites us to prepare our hearts—to make room for Christ in the midst of our celebrations, our challenges, and our everyday moments.

Holy Cross Catholic School is deeply grateful for the ongoing support, prayers, and encouragement we receive from our parish communities. Your partnership allows us to continue our mission of forming students in faith, service, and love. We do not take for granted the role our parishes play in nurturing a strong, faith-filled school community, and we are thankful for the shared commitment we have to raising children rooted in Christ.

As we celebrate Christmas, may your homes be filled with peace, joy, and the warmth of God's presence. May the light of Christ shine brightly in your families and guide you into the new year with hope and renewed faith.

From all of us at Holy Cross Catholic School, we wish you a very Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year. Thank you for being such an important part of our school family.
