*I am the light of the world, says the Lord;

Saint Peter Chrysologus on Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving

For today's pastor's column, I'd like to share a sermon from Saint Peter Chrysologus on Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving:

There are three things, my brethren, by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other.

Fasting is the soul of prayer, almsgiving is the lifeblood of fasting. Let no one try to separate them; they cannot be separated. If you have only one of them or not all together, you have nothing. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others you open God's ear to yourself.

When you fast, see the fasting of others. If you want God to know that you are hungry, know that another is hungry. If you hope for mercy, show mercy. If you look for kindness, show kindness. If you want to receive, give. If you ask for yourself what you deny to others, your asking is a mockery.

Let this be the pattern for all men when they practice mercy: show mercy to others in the same way, with the same generosity, with the same promptness, as you want others to show mercy to you. Therefore, let prayer, mercy and fasting be one single plea to God on our behalf, one speech in our defense, a threefold united prayer in our favor.

Let us use fasting to make up for what we have lost by despising others. Let us offer our souls in sacrifice by means of fasting. There is nothing more pleasing that we can offer to God, as the psalmist said in prophecy: A sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; God does not despise a bruised and humbled heart.

Offer your soul to God, make him an oblation of your fasting, so that your soul may be a pure offering, a holy sacrifice, a living victim, remaining your own and at the same time made over to God. Whoever fails to give this to God will not be excused, for if you are to give him yourself you are never without the means of giving.

To make these acceptable, almsgiving must be added. Fasting bears no fruit unless it is watered by mercy. Fasting dries up when mercy dries up. Mercy is to fasting as rain is to earth. However much you may cultivate your heart, clear the soil of your nature, root out vices, sow virtues, if you do not release the springs of mercy, your fasting will bear no fruit.

When you fast, if your mercy is thin your harvest will be thin; when you fast, what you pour out in almsgiving overflows into your barn. Therefore, do not lose by saving, but gather in by scattering. Give to the poor, and you give to yourself. You will not be allowed to keep what you have refused to give to others.

You are in my daily prayers.
God bless you,
Fr. VanDenBroeke

Go to Masstimes.org for Mass times when traveling

We invite families to bring up the gifts at Mass. There is a sign-up sheet in the back of church where you can jot down your family name before Mass begins to sign-up to bring up the gifts at that Mass. (The gifts sign-up sheet is the same as the usher sign-up sheet.) Especially if you have younger children, this is a special thing to do as a family once in a while.

Mass intentions can be offered for any reason including someone who has died, to celebrate a birthday, or sacramental anniversary. If you would like to schedule a Mass intention, contact the Parish Office. Call 744-2829 or email office@icchurch.cc

STEWARDSHIP

Immaculate Conception is striving to become a Tithing Parish

"Give to the Most High as he has given to you, generously, according to your means." ~ Sirach 35:12

Tithing is an important responsibility for all of us as part of living the Christian life. We are so grateful to everyone who has given so generously to serve the Church and support it financially. In case you missed it, we encourage you to listen to Fr. VanDenBroeke's homily on Tithing found on our website.

COLLECTION, March 8, 2026

Weekly giving: $ 4,847	Weekly budgeted: $ 5,353	Weekly Over (Under): $ (506)
YTD giving: $ 197,568	YTD budgeted: $ 207,708	YTD Over (Under): $ (10,140)

Thank you for your stewardship of God's gifts to you!

Use mobile giving to contribute to the church. Search for "Vanco Mobile" in your app store.

Contributions:

You can mail your contribution envelope to IC Church, 202 Alabama Street SE, Lonsdale, MN. 55046, drop it in the drop box in back of Church, or see the website to set up online giving or mobile giving. Call the Parish Office with questions.

If you are contributing to more than one collection, please write a separate check for each envelope. This will help with our accounting process. Thank you for your generosity.

FLOWERS - We are accepting donations to help cover Easter Décor including, but not limited to, Lilies, Palms, an Easter Candle and Lent Devotionals. Additional funds will cover flowers for the front planters in Spring, candles and flowers for the altar throughout the year. If there are any remaining funds, they will be used to help offset general expenses of the Parish. Please use the "Flower" envelope found in your giving packet dated. Feel free to list any memorials on the back of the envelope, they will be printed in our Easter bulletin. Please contact the parish office with any questions. Memorials need to be submitted by March 24th.

Place your old blessed palms or other blessed items to be discarded in the box in the back of church. These items will be properly disposed of as they are burnt up in the Easter fire during the Easter Vigil.

Capital Campaign Update

EST. CAPITAL CAMPAIGN 1903
LEGACY OF FAITH
Total cash collected $1,239,900.34
Donated materials $75,791.07
Outstanding pledges $102,489.41
Total cash, donations, and pledges $ 1,422,866.34
Number of individuals/families who have contributed 200
Percentage of parish families who have contributed 56%

Thank you to all that have turned in your pledge cards. Turning your pledge card in is a great help in the committee knowing what to expect from the parish in order to do the campaign projects.

We are officially entrusting the parish projects and the capital campaign to St. Joseph. We will be praying the below prayer to St. Joseph at weekend Masses at the end of the petitions. We also invite you to take home one or more prayer cards that will be available in the back of church and pray the prayer to St. Joseph daily for our parish. St. Joseph, pray for us!

O St Joseph, my loving father, I place myself forever under your protection. Look upon me as your child and keep me from all sin. I take refuge in your arms, so that you may lead me on the path of virtue and assist me at the hour of my death. Amen.

ARCHDIOCESAN PRAYER REQUEST FOR PRIESTS

Will you pray for a priest each day?

Mar. 15 - Rev. Roger Hessian
Mar. 17 - Rev. Trieu Hoang
Mar. 19 - Rev. John Hofstede
Mar. 21 - Rev. Spencer Howe

Mar. 16 - Rev. Patrick Hipwell
Mar. 18 - Rev. Steven Hoffman
Mar. 20 - Rev. David Hottinger

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father [N]. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life. In his loneliness, comfort him. In his sorrows, strengthen him. In his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption. O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen. FOR VOCATIONS: Father we trust you to call others to the priesthood to continue your work in our Archdiocese.

March Prayer Intention of the Holy Father

For disarmament and peace - Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Cemetery cleanup notice

As part of our annual spring cleanup at the cemetery, all excess decorations at grave-sites will be removed. This includes any decorations that are not secured to a headstone or approved plant stand. This is necessary for the summer lawn care mowing and weed whipping around the grave markers. If you are concerned that a decoration you have at the cemetery may be removed, we encourage you to personally remove in the next few weeks, or speak to Jim Prchal, the cemetery caretaker, about what items may be allowed to stay. Thank you for understanding, and for helping to keep our cemetery tidy.

Coloring Contest for Lent

Our Lady of Champion & Servant of God, Adele Brice

For our Lenten coloring contest this year, we are excited to highlight the apparition of Our Lady of Champion in Wisconsin, and the Marian visionary, Adelle Brice, who was recently named a Servant of God. We will be pulling pages from a Holy Heroes coloring book about Our Lady of Champion, and the life story of Adele Brice. Each week we will publish part of the story that relates to the coloring page.

We have the weekly coloring page for the week ready for pickup in the back of church. AND... if you color the page and bring it back the following week, you can be entered into that week's contest. All pictures will be returned after Easter. (by picking them up in the back of church)

Congratulations to our Week #2 Coloring Contest Winners!

The topic for week #4's coloring page:

The Fire

On October 8th, 1871, almost twelve years to the date of Mary's last appearance to Adele, the Great Peshtigo Fire broke out. It is still considered to this day the most devastating fire in United States history, killing between 1,200-2,400 people and burning 1.2 million acres. Due to the high winds and dry grounds, the fire quickly became a storm of fire and roared like a tornado right toward the Shrine's grounds.

Desperate for help, people from the surrounding countryside fled to the Chapel where Adele and her companions were praying for Mary's protection. Lifting the statue of Mary, those there that night processed around the sanctuary, praying the rosary and singing hymns to Jesus and the Blessed Mother. When the wind and fire threatened suffocation, they would turn in another direction to pray. Early the next morning, it is believed that a steady rain came and extinguished the flames of the fire.

The following is the account of Father Peter Pernin, a local priest who described the grounds after the events.

Although the fire charred the outside of the Shrine's fence, it had not harmed the grounds. However, the area surrounding the grounds was destroyed, and the only livestock to survive were the cattle the farmers led to the chapel. While many deeper wells in the area went dry, the chapel's shallow well gave the cattle enough water to survive the heat.

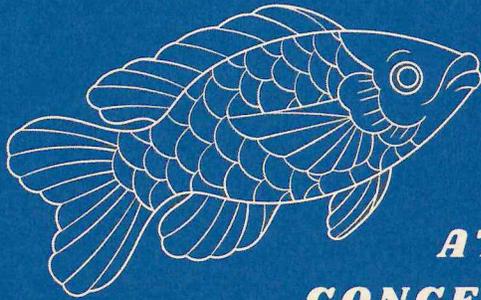

To this day, many descendants of those whose lives were spared during the October 8, 1871 fire come to celebrate the miracle on its anniversary. October 8 continues to draw thousands of people from around the country to visit the Shrine and join in all-night prayer into October 9 - the date historians believe marks the anniversary of Mary's last appearance to Adele.

Adele and her Sisters continued to teach and catechize the children long after the devastating fire. Their presence had a lasting effect on the people of the community. She lived out her ministry with zeal and love of God and Mary. Adele died on July 5, 1896, and is buried in the cemetery located near The Apparition Chapel on the grounds of the National Shrine.
