5th Sunday of Lent

"This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

St. Thomas Aquinas on Why Jesus Suffered for Us

As we continue our time of prayer and penance of Lent, and will soon celebrate the Lord's passion, death, and resurrection, for my pastor's column this week, I want to share an inspiring conference that St. Thomas Aquinas gave on why Jesus suffered for us.

Why did the Son of God have to suffer for us? There was a great need, and it can be considered in a twofold way: in the first place, as a remedy for sin, and secondly, as an example of how to act.

It is a remedy, for, in the face of all the evils which we incur on account of our sins, we have found relief through the passion of Christ. Yet, it is no less an example, for the passion of Christ completely suffices to fashion our lives. Whoever wishes to live perfectly should do nothing but disdain what Christ disdained on the cross and desire what he desired, for the cross exemplifies every virtue.

If you seek the example of love: Greater love than this no man has, than to lay down his life for his friends. Such a man was Christ on the cross. And if he gave his life for us, then it should not be difficult to bear whatever hardships arise for his sake.

If you seek patience, you will find no better example than the cross. Great patience occurs in two ways: either when one patiently suffers much, or when one suffers things which one is able to avoid and yet does not avoid. Christ endured much on the cross, and did so patiently, because when he suffered he did not threaten; he was led like a sheep to the slaughter and he did not open his mouth. Therefore Christ's patience on the cross was great. In patience let us run for the prize set before us, looking upon Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith who, for the joy set before him, bore his cross and despised the shame.

If you seek an example of humility, look upon the crucified one, for God wished to be judged by Pontius Pilate and to die.

If you seek an example of obedience, follow him who became obedient to the Father even unto death. For just as by the disobedience of one man, namely, Adam, many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one man, many were made righteous.

If you seek an example of despising earthly things, follow him who is the King of kings and the Lord of lords, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Upon the cross he was stripped, mocked, spat upon, struck, crowned with thorns, and given only vinegar and gall to drink.

Do not be attached, therefore, to clothing and riches, because they divided my garments among themselves. Nor to honors, for he experienced harsh words and scourgings. Nor to greatness of rank, for weaving a crown of thorns they placed it on my head. Nor to anything delightful, for in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

You are in my daily prayers.
God bless you,
Fr. VanDenBroeke

ARCHDIOCESAN PRAYER REQUEST FOR PRIESTS

Will you pray for a priest each day?

Mar. 22 - Rev. Peter Hughes
Mar. 23 - Rev. Thomas Hunstiger
Mar. 24 - Rev. Joseph Hurtuk
Mar. 25 - Most Rev. Michael Izen
Mar. 26 - Rev. Paul Jaroszeski
Mar. 27 - Rev. Paul Jarvis
Mar. 28 - Rev. Andrew Jaspers

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father [N]. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life. In his loneliness, comfort him. In his sorrows, strengthen him. In his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption. O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen. FOR VOCATIONS: Father we trust you to call others to the priesthood to continue your work in our Archdiocese.

March Prayer Intention of the Holy Father

For disarmament and peace - Let us pray that nations move toward effective disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that world leaders choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy instead of violence.

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The topic for week #5's coloring page:

Adele's Life: an example for us all today

Obedience

Adele demonstrated heroic obedience - to her family, to her priests in leadership, to Our Lady, and ultimately to Our Lord and His Will for her. She is an example of submission to and recognition of an Authority higher than oneself.

Freedom from Idleness

Adele, who was recognized by others as living a life of faith, was still instructed by Our Lady not to stand in idleness but rather to "Go" out and do more. From that point forward, Adele earnestly went about her mission and stepped foot into the "wild country." She is a model for us in responding to the promptings of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives and rejecting the temptation to be idle in one's vocation, spiritual life, and relationship with God.

Catechesis and the New Evangelization

Despite Adele's lack of "education" or "ability," she went out, overcame obstacles, and taught the children by forming friendships with them and trusting in Our Lady's guidance to help her. She is an example for us, especially catechists and teachers, not to allow fear or ignorance of our faith to stop us from doing what is necessary to pass our faith to the next generations.

More information about the life and cause for being declared a saint can be found at <https://adelebrice.org>
