Section I

Our Urgent Challenge and the Narrow Path

4. During his Angelus address on July 12, 2020, Pope Francis explored the four “paths” that are before us. He identified the first path as the “path of distraction.” The “busy life” can, at first glance, appear productive and efficient. Here, the birds flock and chatter, but they also eat the seeds immediately: “Beset by lots of small talk, by many ideologies, by continuous opportunities for distraction inside and outside the home, we can lose our zest for silence, for reflection, for dialogue with the Lord, to the point that we risk losing our faith, not receiving the Word of God, as we are seeing everything, distracted by everything, by worldly things.” This insight leads us to ask: Where in our home life are moments and places of silence and reflection encouraged?

The second path was likened to that of rocky ground. To onlookers, this path might seem “put together,” well arranged, controlled. But despite its manicured facade, it lacks the depth of soil where roots can go deep: “This is the image,” Pope Francis said, “of those who receive the Word of God with momentary enthusiasm, which however, remains superficial; it does not assimilate the Word of God. In this way, at the first difficulty, such as a discomfort or disturbance in life, that still-feeble faith dissolves, as the seed that falls among the rocks withers.” That reflection leads us to ask: Where in our home life are we encouraged to settle in and go deeper into our minds and hearts, and ultimately, into prayer, so that we may withstand the disturbances that come our way?

The third path in the parable is strewn with bushes and thorns. Pope Francis taught that on this path the world’s attractions and affirmations take primacy of place. Amidst “the thorns are the deceit of wealth, of success, of worldly concerns..... There, the Word grows a little, but becomes choked, it is not strong, and it dies or does not bear fruit.” The late Holy Father’s reflection prompts us to ask: Where in our home life do we find ways to examine our consciences? To notice when and how we are motivated by the world and its allure?

Finally, we arrive at the fourth path, the good soil: “Here, and here alone does the seed take root and bear fruit. The seed fallen upon this fertile soil represents those who hear the Word, embrace it, safeguard it in their heart and put it into practice in everyday life.” At last, we have the path that we and our families must travel, a path that we must show the world. For, as John Paul II observed, “As the family goes, so goes the nation and so goes the whole world in which we live.”

(The gifts sign-up sheet is the same as the usher sign-up sheet.) Especially if you have younger children, this is a special thing to do as a family once in a while.

ARCHDIOCESAN PRAYER REQUEST FOR PRIESTS

Will you pray for a priest each day?

Oct. 18 - Rev. Robert Sipe

Oct. 20 - Rev. Randall Skeate

Oct. 22 - Rev. Gregory Skrypek

Oct. 24 - Rev. Michael Slusser

Oct. 19 - Rev. Antony Skaria

Oct. 21 - Rev. Michael Skluzacek

Oct. 23 - Rev. Stanley Sledz

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your servant within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may harm him. Keep unstained his anointed hands with Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied his lips, purpled with your Precious Blood. Keep purer and unearthy his heart, sealed with the sublime mark of Priesthood. Let Your holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion. Bless his labors with abundant fruit. Amen.

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen.

FOR VOCATIONS: Father we trust you to call others to the priesthood to continue your work in our Archdiocese.

October Prayer Intention of the Holy Father

For mental health ministry: Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

October is the month dedicated to the Holy Rosary

Please join us in praying the rosary on Monday evenings at 6:30 pm in the church.

"It could be said that each mystery of the rosary, carefully meditated, sheds light on the mystery of man. 'Cast your burden on the Lord and he will sustain you' (Ps 55:23). To pray the rosary is to hand over our burdens to the merciful hearts of Christ and his Mother. The rosary does indeed 'mark the rhythm of human life,' bringing it into harmony with the 'rhythm' of God's own life, in the joyful communion of the Holy Trinity, our life's destiny and deepest longing. Through the rosary the faithful receive abundant grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer" (Saint John Paul II). ~Magnificat reflection for the memorial of the Holy Rosary.

Widows Mass and Coffee

On November 11th, the 8:00am Mass will be offered for the widows of the parish. All widows are invited to attend. For those who would like to gather for coffee after Mass are invited to the parish hall for some fellowship.

There is a possibility of hosting more gatherings in the future. If interested in this, contact Rita Diercks at 507-210-5944.

Save the date for Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair at the IC Parish Hall on Saturday December 12th.

What is the "Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair"?

The idea was the inspiration of a mom who wanted to give the opportunity to children to learn some business and customer service skills. So with that in mind, we will be combining our parish bake sale this December with having youth vendors to showcase and sell their creations.

While the Christmas bake sale is far off, we want to start getting the word out for young artisans (18yrs and under) in the community who would like to have a chance at selling their crafts. Each youth will be responsible for their own "table or space" and selling the items they have made. All proceeds of the youth sales are kept by the youth. The parish will benefit from a lunch served during the craft sale as well as the parish bake sale! Everyone is invited to donate baked goods for the bake sale.

For interested vendors (parents or grandparents of them) or for more information you can email the parish office at office@icchurch.cc or talk with Annie Rynda.

We already have a list of youth with the following ideas in mind:
Crochet Crafts, Sewing Crafts, Apparel, 3D Creations, Resin Art, Jewelry

Help make our parish Christmas Bake Sale and Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair a success!

HOLY FICTION BOOK GROUP...Autumn of Holy Fiction

IC's Holy Fiction book group invites you to be part of the discussion of our October selection, Lois Lowry's Newbery Prize-winning novel, The Giver. Usually categorized as "young-adult fiction," the book presents important contemporary themes that will challenge mature readers, too. Because The Giver is frequently included in school curricula, the book group especially urges middle- and high-school students and their parents to join us in the Parish Hall kitchen at 6:30 on Wednesday, October 28. Contact Deb Kaczmarek at debbiek@lightblast.net if you need information or help in obtaining a copy of The Giver.
