Pastoral Letter – Section 1, Paragraph 5

This article is from the Pastoral Letter from Archbishop Hebda.

Only One Thing Is Necessary
How Catholic Families Can Strive To Be United in This Life and the Next
Pastoral Letter to the Families of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis

Section I

Our Urgent Challenge and the Narrow Path

5. Dear families, I know it is not always easy to choose the fourth path. At some points in our lives, we may find ourselves among the thorns or struggling to deepen our roots. It is precisely in those moments that we may take to heart one final reflection on this parable, offered by Pope Leo, who reminds us of God's closeness and assistance even when facing life's challenges:

It is true that the destiny of the seed depends also on the way in which the earth welcomes it and the situation in which it finds itself, but first and foremost in this parable Jesus tells us that God throws the seed of His Word on all kinds of soil, that is, in any situation of ours: at times we are more superficial and distracted, at times we let ourselves get carried away by enthusiasm, sometimes we are burdened by life's worries, but there are also times when we are willing and welcoming. God is confident and hopes that sooner or later the seed will blossom. This is how He loves us: He does not wait for us to become the best soil, but He always generously gives us His word. Perhaps by seeing that He trusts us, the desire to be better soil will be kindled in us.

How I wish that kind of love, the hopeful love of God the Father, would be present in all our families in this Archdiocese.

Given that God loves us that much and so clearly sees the potential in all of us, how could His Church not be similarly loving, assisting you as you strive to support your families so that the seeds that the Divine Sower has sown can indeed blossom within them? I am inspired when I see how deeply you desire to love the members of your families into eternity, to walk the narrow path with them, to pass on to them the faith with its wisdom, solace and salvation. However, so many of you express frustration that you don't know how best to do that, and you humbly turn to Mother Church for help.

This letter is a humble attempt to reassure you that the Church is listening and desires to walk with you. You are not alone.

ARCHDIOCESAN PRAYER REQUEST FOR PRIESTS

Will you pray for a priest each day?

Oct. 25 - Rev. Larry Snyder
Oct. 26 - Rev. Sebastian Spencer
Oct. 27 - Msger. Jeffrey Steenson
Oct. 28 - Rev. James Stiles
Oct. 29 - Rev. Shane Wasinger
Oct. 30 - Rev. Andrew Stueve
Oct. 31 - Abp. Bernard Henbda, Auzbp. Michael Izen and Kevin Kenney

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your servant within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may harm him. Keep unstained his anointed hands with Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied his lips, purpled with your Precious Blood. Keep purer and unearthly his heart, sealed with the sublime mark of Priesthood. Let Your holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion. Bless his labors with abundant fruit. Amen.

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen.

FOR VOCATIONS: Father we trust you to call others to the priesthood to continue your work in our Archdiocese.

October Prayer Intention of the Holy Father

For mental health ministry: Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

October is the month dedicated to the Holy Rosary

Please join us in praying the rosary on Monday evenings at 6:30 pm in the church.

"It could be said that each mystery of the rosary, carefully meditated, sheds light on the mystery of man. 'Cast your burden on the Lord and he will sustain you' (Ps 55:23). To pray the rosary is to hand over our burdens to the merciful hearts of Christ and his Mother. The rosary does indeed 'mark the rhythm of human life,' bringing it into harmony with the 'rhythm' of God's own life, in the joyful communion of the Holy Trinity, our life's destiny and deepest longing. Through the rosary the faithful receive abundant grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer"

(Saint John Paul II).~Magnificat reflection for the memorial of the Holy Rosary.

Widows Mass and Coffee

On November 11th, the 8:00am Mass will be offered for the widows and of the parish. All widows are invited to attend. For those who would like to gather for coffee after Mass are invited to the parish hall for some fellowship.

There is a possibility of hosting more gatherings in the future. If interested in this, contact Rita Diercks at 507-210-5944.

Save the date for Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair at the IC Parish Hall on Saturday December 12th.

What is the "Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair"?
The idea was the inspiration of a mom who wanted to give the opportunity to children to learn some business and customer service skills. So with that in mind, we will be combining our parish bake sale this December with having youth vendors to showcase and sell their creations.

While the Christmas bake sale is far off, we want to start getting the word out for young artisans (18yrs and under) in the community who would like to have a chance at selling their crafts. Each youth will be responsible for their own "table or space" and selling the items they have made. All proceeds of the youth sales are kept by the youth. The parish will benefit from a lunch served during the craft sale as well as the parish bake sale! Everyone is invited to donate baked goods for the bake sale.

For interested vendors (parents or grandparents of them) or for more information you can email the parish office at office@icchurch.cc or talk with Annie Rynda.

We already have a list of youth with the following ideas in mind:
Crochet Crafts, Sewing Crafts, Apparel, 3D Creations, Resin Art, Jewelry

Help make our parish Christmas Bake Sale and Crafty Kids Christmas Craft Fair a success!

Our snow removal service will not be able to provide shoveling services, only plowing service. So, we are looking to hire some snow shovelers who would come any time it snows. Especially early mornings before Mass. We would provide the shovels and snowblowers.

If you have an interest, please let Fr. VanDenBroeke know! And we can discuss what hourly wage would be reasonable.

Note about Masses for All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day

Come, Let us worship God whose praises are sung in the assembly of the saints. ~Office of Readings All Saints

HOLY FICTION BOOK GROUP...Autumn of Holy Fiction

IC's Holy Fiction book group invites you to be part of the discussion of our October selection, Lois Lowry's Newbery Prize-winning novel, The Giver. Usually categorized as "young-adult fiction," the book presents important contemporary themes that will challenge mature readers, too. Because The Giver is frequently included in school curricula, the book group especially urges middle- and high-school students and their parents to join us in the Parish Hall kitchen at 6:30 on Wednesday, October 28. Contact Deb Kaczmarek at debbiek@lightblast.net if you need information or help in obtaining a copy of The Giver.
